

ARTZY

NEW!

101 Reasons to Visit Israel (and perhaps make aliyah)

by Estie and Dovid Solomon
Hard Cover 148 pages
ISBN: 978-1-934440-02-5
$12.95 Size: 6.5" x 9"
Publication Date: August 2007

What makes Israel so special?
EVERYTHING!

And here are more than 100 examples of the wondrous things you'll find in the Land of Milk and Honey.

You Can Visit the Lowest Point on Earth

Yam Hametech, Israel

INSIDE

You Can See Lots of People in Costume

On Purim and Shushan Purim

You Will Love the Fresh & Crispy Breads and Lachmaniec

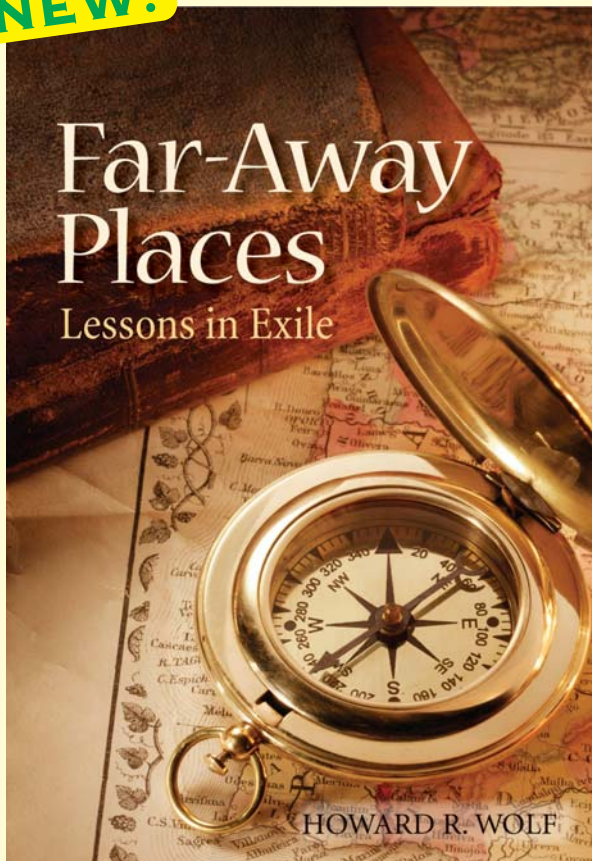

At the Bakery Outside of the Macheve Yehuda on Jaffo Street

You Will See that Even Jerusalem's City Hall Has a Large Sukka

City Hall, Jaffo Street, Jerusalem

NEW!

Far-Away Places Lessons in Exile

by Howard Wolf, Ph.D.
Hard Cover ISBN: 978-1-932687-99-6
160 pages Price: $21.95
Size: 6" x 9"
Pub Date: November 2007
Category: TravellInspirational

The essays in this collection could be called a cultural autobiography. At the time when the first of them was written, America was still looking primarily at the U.S.S.R. as the world power which might set the world ablaze. Then, after the collapse of the Soviet Union, the rising suns of the South China coasts and the Pacific Rim cast their light across the world, and the many faces of Islam were often the images we saw on CNN. As the author travels through the beginning of the 21st century, he discovers that things never change as much as they stay the same.

After each essay is a short bibliography, and a well-written "Re-Vision" as the author looks back on his journeys and puts them into a "now" perspective.

But it is his description that most impresses. His ability to capture the essence of life in Turkey, India, or New York even if he is only a guest, a short-term guest at that. Here the power of words to tell a story, portray a picture, show a scene, brings with it a new level of joy and wonder that will send the reader on an exciting journey without the need to pack a bag and bring a change of clothes.

Grandpa's Mountain

Letters From A Border Kibbutz

by Arieh Larkey

Hard Cover ISBN: 978-1-932687-87-3

156 Pages Price: $18.95

Size: 6" x 9"

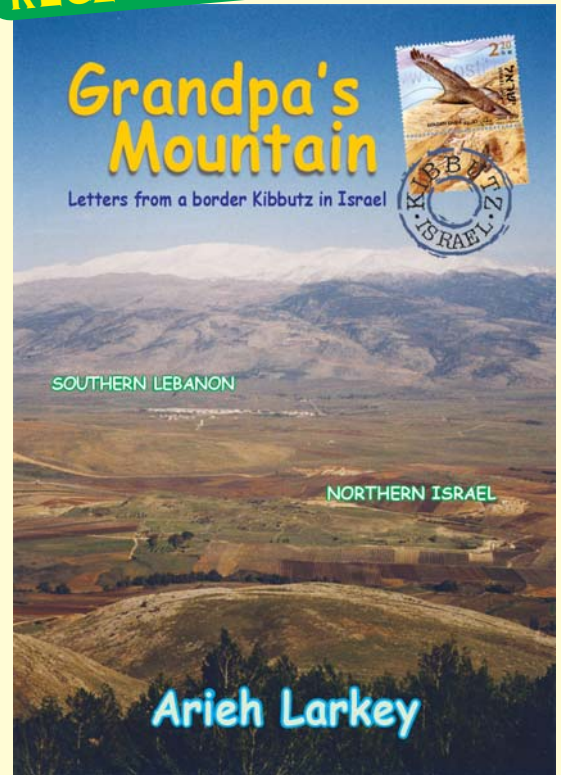

It was during the euphoric aftermath of Israel's victorious Six Day War in 1967, that Yoram (Richie) Friedman uprooted his wife and ten-year-old son from the "good life" in the States, to settle on a picturesque border kibbutz in Northern Israel.

In October 1973, the reality of their seemingly idyllic new home comes into sharp relief as Syrian war planes fly menacingly overhead, signaling the beginning of Israel's next (and most costly) war with its Arab neighbors – the Yom Kippur War.

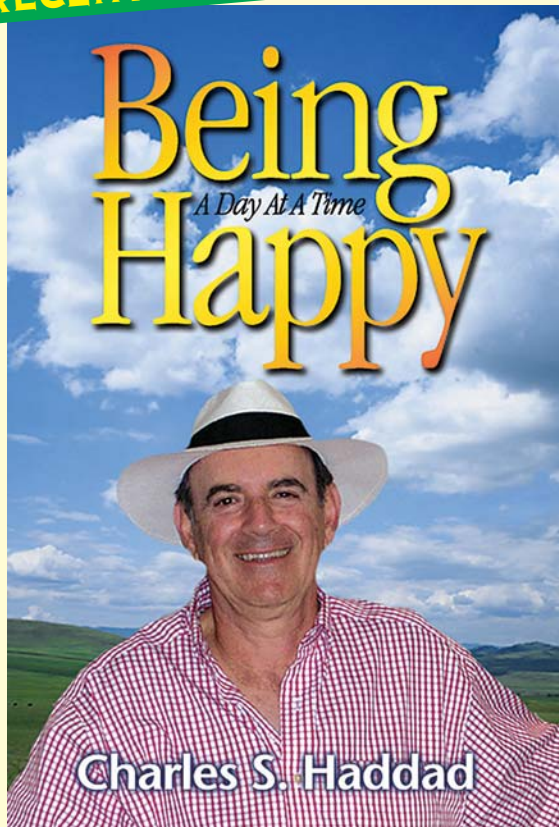

The trauma of that horrific conflict somehow strengthens Yoram's Zionist ideals, but his wife and son reject his lofty principles and decide to return to the States, resulting in a wrenching silence from both sides of the ocean – lasting almost a quarter century.

Then one day, Yoram receives an unexpected letter from his twelve-year-old grandson, a new Boy Scout and budding adventurer. Their ensuing pen-pal relationship brings about a special bond between grandpa and grandson, as adventures of the past intermingle with present day events in a compelling and healing love story spanning the generations.

RECENTLY PUBLISHED

RECENTLY PUBLISHED

Being Happy A Day At A Time

by Charles S. Haddad

Hard Cover ISBN: 1-932687-80-7

120 Pages Price: $18.95

Size: 6" x 9"

These short essays explain, without embellishments, how to live life to the fullest, and how to create a better life for you, your family and everyone you come into contact with. They are meaningful to people of any age because they deal with the tiny obstacles in everyone's life that won't let them move on.

In essays like "Improving Your Attitude," "Take Charge and Run Your Life," "Everything Happens for the Best," and "Don't Take It Personally," the author presents some basic, sound observations that will change the way you see yourself and the way others see you. His advice is simple, practical and usable.

If you find yourself asking, as you read this book, "Why didn't I think of that myself?" Don't worry – thousands have felt the same way. The important thing is that now you have these wonderful solutions to the inevitable obstacles in life.

Use them.